The Giants have used the whitewash brush three times since they left home, blanking the Reds. Cardinals and Rustlers. Vesterday's was Mathewson's second shutout victory this season. He left the Phillies down without a run in the other one.

In case Flynn fails to make good at first for the Pirates the tip is that Wagner will go to that bar. Pittsburgers, however, look for Flynn to make good. He is doing better than last year. This Fitzgerald chap of the Highlanders is a very fast runner, but his feat yesterday of turning to look at the batter while chasing the latter's hit smacked very much of amateur baseball. MEADOW BROOK FIRST TEAM WINS WELL FOUGHT GAME.

Both Waterburys in Saddle and Whitney and Milburn Looking On-Victors Conceded Long Odds and Beat Magples by 1 1-4 Goals Bob-a-Nob in It.

On green, fast turf, footing good enough for British sprinters to run the 100 yard, Meadow Brook First beat the Meadow Brook Magpies yesterday by 16% to 15 goals. The Magpies yesterday by 16% to 15 goals, winners conceded 13 goals by han handicap and needed two goals to win at the begin-ning of the eighth period. It was an interesting match throughout and the result was in doubt until the last four minutes of play. It was then that the pony Bob-a-Nob butted in to spoil the last chance of the Mag-

For the first time since they successfully disemparked, however, for Ward thought he would risk some more of the rough water and took his varsity and freshmen upstream again. Milburn were only onlookers. Meadow Brook presented René La Montagne as No. 1, the two Waterburys next on the line and H. C. Phipps as back. The Magline and H. C. Phipps as back. The Mag-pies playing as named were Eugene S. Reynal, Raymond Belmont, J. P. Grace and J. Cheever Cowdin. Meadow Brook's points footed up to 29 and the Magpies to 13, but they counted as a 16 goal team under the conditions of the Meadow Brook cups, the trophies in which the game was the opening of the series that continues to-day. All had neat and handy ponies and the were well filled and they ran into the Columbia float and dumped out their boats. The passage of William K. Vanderbilt's Tarantula caused an enormous swell and did not help the water conditions a bit, did not help the water conditions a bit, did not help the water conditions a bit, eights and varsity four, got out for their first row in twenty-four hours just affect the Quakers came in and they too work as at they could.

The rough water was too much for them, however, and when they reached the Columbia has been considered the columbia the columbia of the series that continues to-day, as they could.

Kramer and Clarke Beaten in Vallsburg Races. Stars of the cycle firmament were in partial eclipse last night in the midweek race meet at the Newark Velodrome. National champion Frank Kramer and Jackie Clarke, the Australian, who have been cleanling up pretty regularly, did not figure prominently. Percy Lawrence by a clever ride captured the two mile professional handicap.

Punctures caused the retirement of both Kramer and Clarke in the five mile open, which was won by Joe Fogler with John Bedell a close second. Frank Cavanaugh captured the half mile amateur open. Alvin Loftus, the Providence youngster, led the field home in the three mile amateur handicap.
